Media Consent and Waiver Agreement

At Global Summers Academy, a high school educational travel program operated by 2769845 Ontario Inc. ("Global Summers Academy"), we provide a rich learning environment where students learn from our teachers and from the guided collaborative work they do in location on our travel education programs. We are proud to share this environment and experience with our students, alumni, family, and friends by featuring students and their work on our websites and in other electronic media, including social media, and in print media, presentations, open houses, advertisements, and the like. To assist in publicizing our programs we request the following consents from our students and their parents or guardians.

PHOTOGRAPHS & RECORDINGS

I, the undersigned, , am the parent/legal guardian of , understand that during my child's participation in Global Summers Academy programs, Global Summers Academy may record my child's image and/or voice, both individually and as part of any group, in any physical or electronic manner including but not limited to still photographs and audio/video recordings, and that Global Summers Academy may make excerpts and compilations of these recordings (the recordings, excerpts and compilations are referred to collectively as "Recordings") and consent to Global Summers Academy making, creating and retaining such Recordings.

I authorize Global Summers Academy to make, copy, publish, display and otherwise include Recordings of my child in websites and other physical or electronic media (including but not limited to social media, print, radio, television, websites or emails) published or presented by or on behalf of Global Summers Academy, which I understand will be used only in relation to Global Summers Academy programs.

I further understand and agree that Global Summers Academy may decide to use or print all or part of my child's name in association with Recordings, or may refrain from stating their name altogether.
